

PRIMARY MUSIC EVENT HIGHLIGHTS

CANTERBURY FESTIVAL

15 OCTOBER – 5 NOVEMBER 2016

Group booking discounts available through the Festival office
01227 452853 or info@canterburyfestival.co.uk

SHOWSTOPPER! THE IMPROVISED MUSICAL

Do you like musicals? Come and see these award winning musicians and performers show off their skills as they create a brand new musical every night, from scratch.

Marlowe Theatre, Friday 21 October 7.30pm

DEFROSTED

Loveable clowns Cat and Nicko will perform songs and parodies inspired by that frosty film. It's a bonkers blast of music-fuelled fun, in their magical freezer of silliness. [suitable 3+]

Spiegeltent, Saturday 29 October 1pm

TALES FROM ADRIAMUS

Anthony Browne's books and illustrations are brought to life with live music from the Adriamus String Quartet, plus an appearance by Anthony Browne! There's also a workshop with the musicians after the show on offer. [suitable 2+]

Spiegeltent, Tuesday 25 October 2pm

PRIMARY SHOWCASE

Lights, Camera, Action! A morning of music from local primary schools, inspired by your favourite films.

Spiegeltent, Saturday 5 November 11am

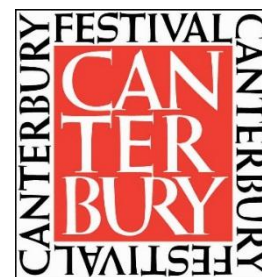

There are a whole series of shows happening each afternoon of October half term including some listed above – full details available from www.canterburyfestival.co.uk

PRIMARY SCIENCE EVENTS

CANTERBURY FESTIVAL

15 OCTOBER – 5 NOVEMBER 2016

Group booking discounts available through the Festival office
01227 452853 or info@canterburyfestival.co.uk

WHEN MAGIC AND SCIENCE COLLIDE

Learn all about the science behind some of your favourite magic tricks – and stay on for a free workshop with Oliver afterwards! [suitable 7+]

St Mary's Hall Studio Theatre, Monday 24 October, 2pm

ROALD DAHL'S MARVELLOUS MEDICINE*

Roald's doctor, Professor Tom Solomon, is coming to Canterbury for one day only to explore the famous author's fascination with Science, and how it inspired some of his most beloved stories. [suitable 7+]

St Mary's Hall Studio Theatre, Thursday 27 October, 2pm

LITTLE MONSTERS

Ever wanted to step foot in a science Lab? This is your chance! Experience life under a microscope with some of University of Kent's Bioscientists. [suitable 5+]

Stacey Building, University of Kent, Saturday 29 October, 2pm

X&Y*

What happens when you live your life solely through maths and equations? X&Y explores what happens when a life governed by reason and rules gets interrupted by someone interested in exploring what lies beyond. [suitable 7+]

St Mary's Hall Studio Theatre, Sunday 30 October, 7.30pm

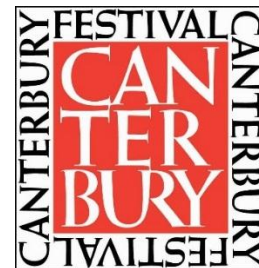

* = post-show follow up exercises and ideas available on our website

There are a whole series of shows happening during October half term including some listed above – full details available from www.canterburyfestival.co.uk

PRIMARY ENGLISH & PERFORMANCE EVENTS

CANTERBURY FESTIVAL

15 OCTOBER – 5 NOVEMBER 2016

Group booking discounts available through the Festival office
01227 452853 or info@canterburyfestival.co.uk

POETRY COMPETITION*

Each year, the Festival runs a poetry competition for schools across Kent. This evening, the winning poets are announced and their poems read in a celebration event where their anthology is unveiled. A free evening of excellent poetry.

Colyer-Fergusson Hall, University of Kent, Friday 7 October, 5pm

VARIETY SOUP

Award-winning Slightly Fat Features are bringing their riotous show to Canterbury. Expect feats of juggling endurance and a masterclass in tiger taming like you've never seen before. This variety show has been seen the world over to audience acclaim.

Spiegel tent, Tuesday 25 & Wednesday 26 October, 7.30pm

WHAT WILL HAVE BEEN

Australian Circus company Circa are performing a brand new show, with mind blowing tricks performed to live music. It's a must see for anyone interested in acrobatics, performance and music!

Spiegel tent, Thursday 27-Saturday 29 October, 7pm

* = post-show follow up exercises and ideas available on our website

There are over 200 events taking place across the Festival – full details available from www.canterburyfestival.co.uk