

9. Filling the Void | HMV | St Margaret St

Celebrating the work created during lockdown by three youth organisations; Neon Afterschool club, Motion Alpha Dance Company and Spires Academy. Put together by Kent based digital arts company Cybersaur Arts.

10. Earth Tribe: Under 18s Poetry Competition

Whitefriars Screens

Children across Kent took part in this year's Canterbury Festival Poetry Competition. From over 1500 entries, fourteen selected poems will be shown on the digital screens in Whitefriars.

11. What Makes You Unique?

Pilgrims Hospices Bookshop | 10 Burgate

Pilgrims Hospices asked local school children to create works of art which expressed their individuality. A selection of work from an exhibition due to be displayed at The Beany in May 2020 (now rescheduled for March 2021). Come along for a preview of some of the amazing artworks. pilgrimshospices.org

12. Hersden Community Centre Art Group

Canterbury Whole Foods | 1-3 Iron Bar Lane

A selection of work from this art group that meet weekly at Hersden Community Centre.

13. The Umbrella Centre Art Group and Janet Bayes

Demelza | 18 Burgate

The Umbrella Centre Art Group has been running for over 30 years. The work in the exhibition was completed during 2019 in concertina sketch books, exploring cultures around the world and using a range of media.

Janet Bayes will be exhibiting a selection of watercolours, and is also an expert in sugar craft who has made a cake for the Queen Mother.

14. Folkestone Museum | 51 Burgate

Charlotte Chapman's work Two Metres and its community reply from over 200 participants, which Chapman has recorded in her work a very human response, are now key parts of Folkestone Museum's contemporary art and social history collections. Together they record Folkestone's experience of the 2020 Coronavirus national lockdown. folkestonemuseum.co.uk

15. Dover smART Project

Lakeland Store | 2-4 Longmarket

Dover SmART Project is a creative charity founded in 2013. Providing opportunities locally for vulnerable and disadvantaged people to take part in a wide range of activities and experiences. This window has been designed by their young carer groups. They are the carers who are making a huge difference to their families' lives.

16. Catching Lives

Old Cathedral Shop | 36-37 Burgate

Catching Lives, an independent charity aimed at supporting the rough sleepers, homeless and vulnerably housed in Canterbury and East Kent.

Art & Wellbeing Box Project: 5 artists delivered 10 workshops in 400 takeaway boxes during Lockdown.

Catching Lives School Competition: Images by local children, translated onto giant cubes by artist Zo Defferary and clients of Catching Lives. catchinglives.org

17. Canterbury School of Visual Arts at

Canterbury College (CSVA) | 15-16 Guildhall St

Students at CSVA are making work inspired by the theme of Canterbury; researching the history of the city, their place as young people in it, exploring its rich cultural history and how it has inspired artists and makers. Work will be on sale and on show in locations within the city as part of their professional practice.

Also in and around Canterbury

L'Arche Kent | 5 Victoria Rd

Peter Heyman's abstract art does not try to represent the exterior world, but expresses in an immediate way to the inner feelings of the soul.

Geoffrey Fittall is a man of few words, often deep in his own thoughts. Geff through his colourful art manifests his love for others.

These very kind organisations and businesses supported the project by offering space, without them this would not have happened:

Canterbury Cathedral, Eastbridge Hospital, Demelza Hospice, Pilgrims Hospices, The King's Mile, HMV, Lush, Bounce Vintage, Lakeland, Canterbury Wholefoods, Espressions, L'Arche, Catching Lives, BNP Paribas Real Estate, Whitefriars and Canterbury Christ Church University.

Designed by @sailormadearts

Share your photos on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter by using #canterburyfest #HeArtCanterbury

Socially Distanced Community Arts Trail 17 - 31 October 2020

A range of artwork exhibited by community groups and organisations from across the district

canterburyfestival.co.uk

He Art of the City

Socially distanced Community Art Trail

1. Abstract Canterbury | The King's Mile

Canterbury Festival's community photo competition with shortlisted photos in shop windows along The King's Mile. Pick up a map in participating shops and choose a winner.

2. Catching Lives Exhibition

Wonky Bookshop | 28 Palace St

To celebrate Catching Lives 10th anniversary the Wonky Bookshop windows are decorated by artist Zo Defferary.

3. Espressions | 29-30 Palace St

A social enterprise that enables people of all ages/abilities to produce the best creations they can. Projects and home kits include decorative ceramics, creative clay, mosaics, deco-patch and foam clay.

4. L'Arche | 18 St Radigunds St

At L'Arche we believe in communities with a culture of shared lives between people with and without learning disabilities, from which we can work together to build a more human society. Our range of art and social groups create a circle of support and ensures life is lived to the full.

5. Waste Free Fashion | Bounce Vintage

27 St Peter's St

Nothing to Waste (in a Pandemic). Wetsuits, wedding dresses, sailing salvage and landfill elevated into exciting and innovative fashion concepts. Emma Sikora, Gloria Jane Royer, Lorna Doyle and Robert George Sanders in partnership with Future Foundry. @future_foundry

6. Sidney Cooper Gallery | 22-23 St Peter's St

A collection of work from professional artists working in community settings.

7. Ceramic Art Dover

Eastbridge Hospital | 60 High St

Ceramic Art Dover is a cluster of intergenerational ceramicists, living in and around Dover and East Kent. Raku work will be on show along with 3 of their recently bisque-fired Dover Community Lockdown Pots. @ceramicartdover

8. Animate Arts | Lush | 8 High St

This floral piece is made entirely from paper, hand-cut by children taking part in the Art Builders At Home project. The work was created in the lockdown, and used in a 360° virtual reality film:
artbuilders.co.uk/gallery | animateartscompany.com